What did the prefix change?

ANCHOR CHART

re- + tell = retell

Retell means tell again. The base tell gives the action. The prefix re- tells us it happens again.

1. Find the part

Point to the prefix, root, or ending. Say what it means or does.

2. Explain the word

Use the part to explain the whole word. Say your thinking aloud.

3. Try a related word

Find a word with the same part. Explain what the two words share.

Teacher prompt What does the word part help you figure out?

Teaching routine and research

Sort, explain, and try

Name _____ Date _____

1. Sort the words

Write each word under the group it fits.

retell precook rewash misspell

Again	Before	Wrongly

2. Explain one group

What do the words in this group have in common?

3. Try another word

The soup got cold, so we will reheat it before lunch.

Box the prefix in reheat. Underline the base.

What does reheat mean? Explain how the prefix helped.

Word parts in context

Teacher key Again: retell and rewash. Before: precook. Wrongly: misspell. Reheat means heat again.

Online curriculum map

Not, opposite, or undo

un- not	The broken ladder is unsafe to climb.
un- reverse or remove	After the trip, I unpack my bag.
dis- apart or away / not / opposite of	We disconnect the two toy train cars.
non- not	This nonfiction book gives facts about birds.

Again, before, or back

re- again / back	After hearing the story, I retell it to my sister.
pre- before	We precook the rice before adding it to the dish.
fore- before / in front	The forecast tells us what weather may come tomorrow.

Wrongly or badly

mis- wrongly / badly	I misspell the name, so I check the letters and try again.

Place, direction, and degree

over- above / too much	A kite flew overhead, above us.
sub- under / below	The submarine traveled below the waves.
mid- middle	At midday, we stopped for lunch.
under- below / too little	The worker was underpaid for the work she did.

Number, time, and comparison

-ed past / already happened	Yesterday we walked to the park.
-er more	This plant is taller than that one.
-est the most	This is the tallest of the three plants.
-ing action happening now or in progress	The dog is running across the field.
-s, -es more than one	Three books are on the shelf.

Causing a change

en-, em- put into / cause to become	We enlarge the map to see the streets.

People and what they do

-er, -or a person or thing that does something	The writer finished a story.

Qualities and ways of doing

-able, -ible can be / able to be	The game was enjoyable.
-ful full of	The careful painter keeps the paint off the floor.
-less without	We see the stars in the cloudless sky.
-ly in a ___ way	The turtle moved slowly.
-ly having qualities of / like	The friendly neighbor waved to us.

Actions, states, and new word forms

-ness a state or quality someone or something has	We turned on a lamp in the darkness.
-ion, -tion, -sion an action, process, or result	Helping the lost child was a kind action.
-ment an action, process, result, or state	The music gave us enjoyment.