Use the root, then check the sentence

ANCHOR CHART

pel = push or drive

To propel is to drive something forward. When magnets repel, they push apart. The root gives the shared idea. The rest of the word and the sentence help us tell the meanings apart.

1. Find the part

Point to the prefix, root, or ending. Say what it means or does.

2. Explain the word

Use the part to explain the whole word. Say your thinking aloud.

3. Try a related word

Find a word with the same part. Explain what the two words share.

4. Check the sentence

Find a clue that fits your first guess. Keep or revise your meaning.

Teacher prompt What does the word part help you figure out?

Teaching routine and research

Sort, explain, and try

Name _____ Date _____

1. Sort the words

Write each word under the group it fits.

propel credible repel audible

Push or drive	A different idea

2. Explain one group

What do the words in this group have in common?

3. Try another word

The flooded trail could compel the hikers to turn back even though they wanted to finish the route.

What might compel mean? Use pel to make a first guess.

Underline words in the sentence that help you check. Keep or revise your meaning and explain.

Word parts in context

Teacher key Push or drive: propel and repel. A different idea: credible and audible. Compel means force or drive someone to act. The flooded trail and the hikers wanting to finish are clues.

Online curriculum map

Again, before, or back

retro- backward / back	Workers retrofit the old bus with new safety equipment.

Place, direction, and degree

ab- away / from	One team member was absent from the meeting.
a-, ad- to / toward	The label must adhere to the jar.

People and what they do

-ant, -ent a person or thing that does something	Each contestant answered a question.

Qualities and ways of doing

-ant, -ent describes what someone or something is like or tends to do	The persistent climber tried the route again.

Actions, states, and new word forms

-ance an action, or a state or quality someone or something has	The performance of the play lasted one hour.
-ence an action, or a state or quality someone or something has	The discovery proved the existence of the ancient village.

Moving, carrying, and sending duct/duce lead	The musician will conduct the orchestra.

fer carry / bear	We transfer the water, carrying it from one bucket to another.
ject throw	The device can project an image onto the wall.
mit send	Please submit your story to the editor.
pel push / drive	The spinning propeller can propel the boat forward through the water.
sequ follow	In this sequence, each number follows the one before it.
tract pull / draw	A magnet can attract a metal pin and pull it closer.
ven/vent come	At the convention, people come together for a meeting.
vert turn	We convert the shed, turning it into a studio.

Communicating and noticing

voc call / voice	The singer used her vocal skills to control her voice.
aud hear	We listened to the audio recording.

Investigating the world

chron time	We placed the events in chronological order, from earliest to latest.
derm/dermat skin	The dermatology clinic treats skin conditions.
terr earth / land	The rough terrain made the land hard to cross.

Explore a root family

pend/pens hang / weigh/consider	We suspend the lantern from a hook so it hangs above us.
pos put / place	Mark the position of the first tent on the map so we know where to find it.
put think / consider	We compute the total cost of the tickets.
ten hold	During detention, the student had to remain at school after lessons.
val be strong / be of worth	The appraiser estimated the value of the painting by comparing what similar paintings had sold for.
cred believe / trust	A credible account is one we can believe.
biblio book	Our report ends with a bibliography.